

Walk in freedom

Edition 1, March 18 – 2010
(Dedicated to Ruth Schoemaker)

Wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

You have died with Christ, and He has set
you free from the spiritual powers of this world.

Dear friends,

We have to fight for our Freedom and it must be maintained. This instruction is meant for aftercare for those who have experienced a deliverance session. To keep your freedom and position in Christ Jesus after a deliverance session is a steady growing process with trial and error and certainly not always easy. The deliverance session is often the turning point. It is like an old-fashioned church bell where the clerk stopped pulling the rope, however there are still some strikes, the sound slowly dies away, the sound becomes less powerful, the intervals became longer and eventually you will experience the peacefulness and quietness.

And you, who live in freedom, do you have an eye for those who live in bondage? *For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. (Galatians 5:13). Your helping hand, your acts of love, your prayers, your blessings of the other, your proclamations have power in the spiritual world with an impact in the visible world, the lives of those who live in bondage.

The following Bible verses are intended to pray, to speak, to advocate on, to proclaim, to print, to put on the wall, to put under your pillow, to encourage each other, etc. This aftercare instructions are dedicated to Ruth Schoemaker, a beautiful woman of God, who at the time of writing this instruction is fighting to keep her deliverance.

And never forget your position in Christ: And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise (crush) your head, and you shall bruise His heel (Genesis 3:15). Satan's head is crushed and we are limping a bit. This is absolutely not comparable. Live in the victory which Jesus took for us!

You have died with Christ, and He has set you free from the spiritual powers of this world (Col. 2:20).

... that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him all our days (Luke 1:74-75).

Say to those with fearful hearts, Be strong, and do not fear, for your God is coming to destroy your enemies. He is coming to save (deliver) you (Isaiah 35:4).

For the Lord your God has arrived to live among you. He is a mighty saviour. He will rejoice over you with great gladness. With His love, He will calm all your fears. He will exult over you by singing a happy song (Zephaniah 3:17).

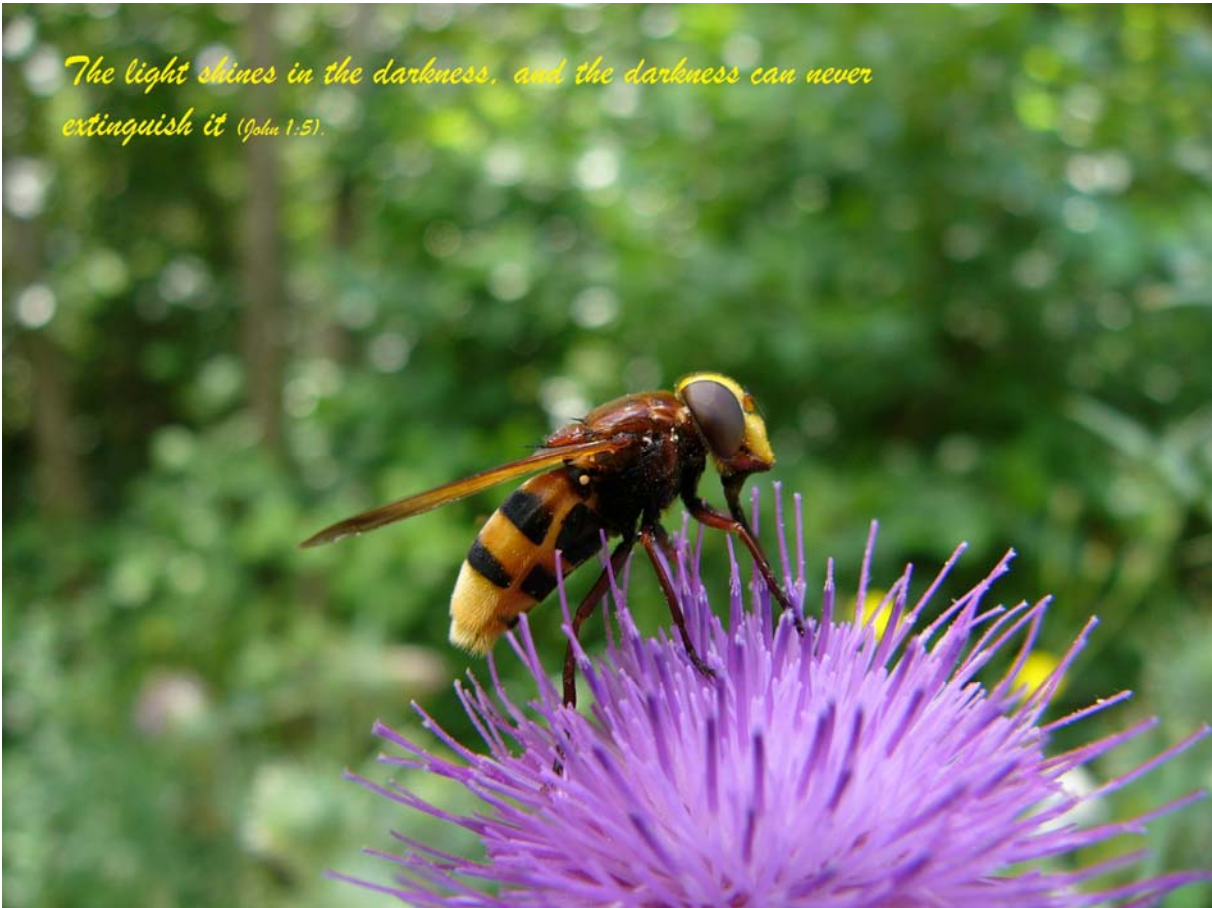

For He has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of His dear Son (Col. 1:13).

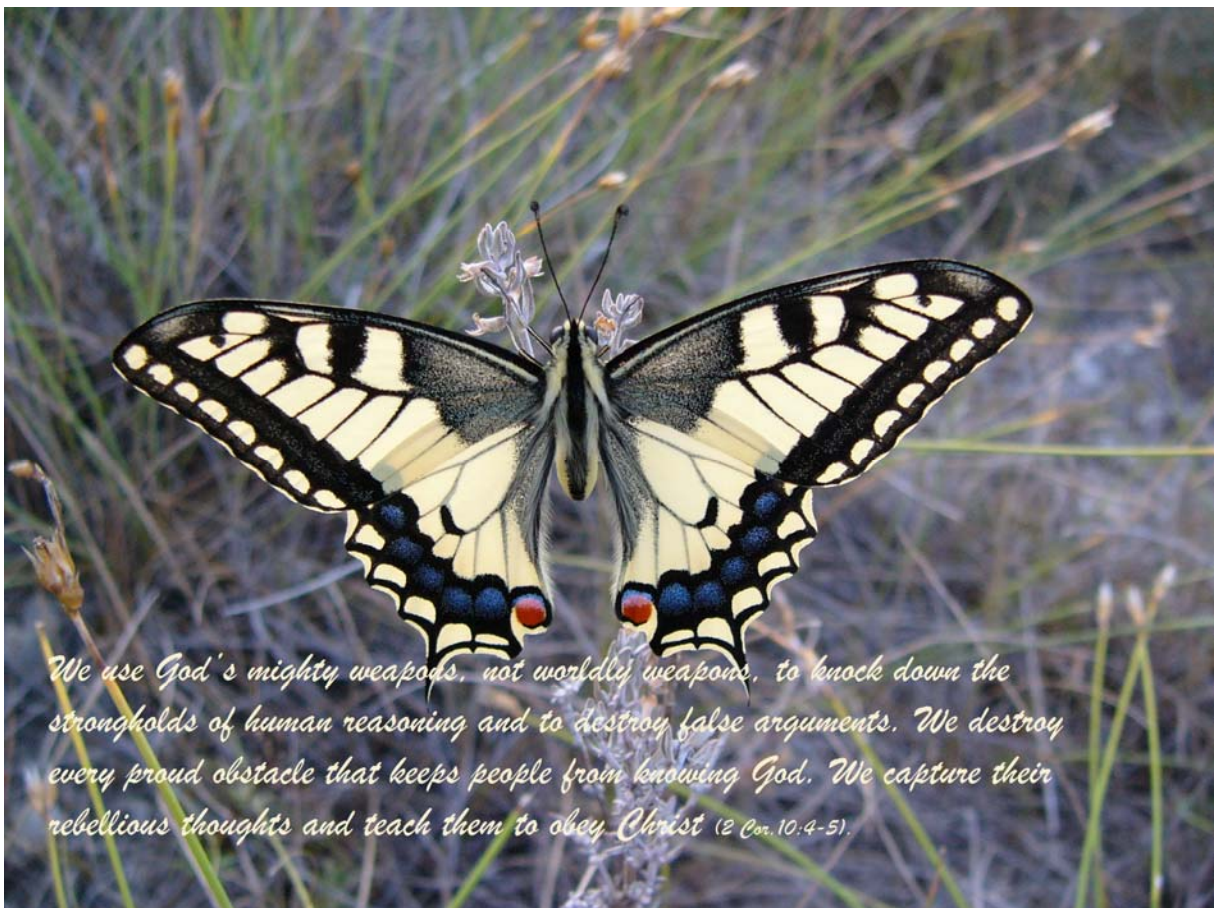

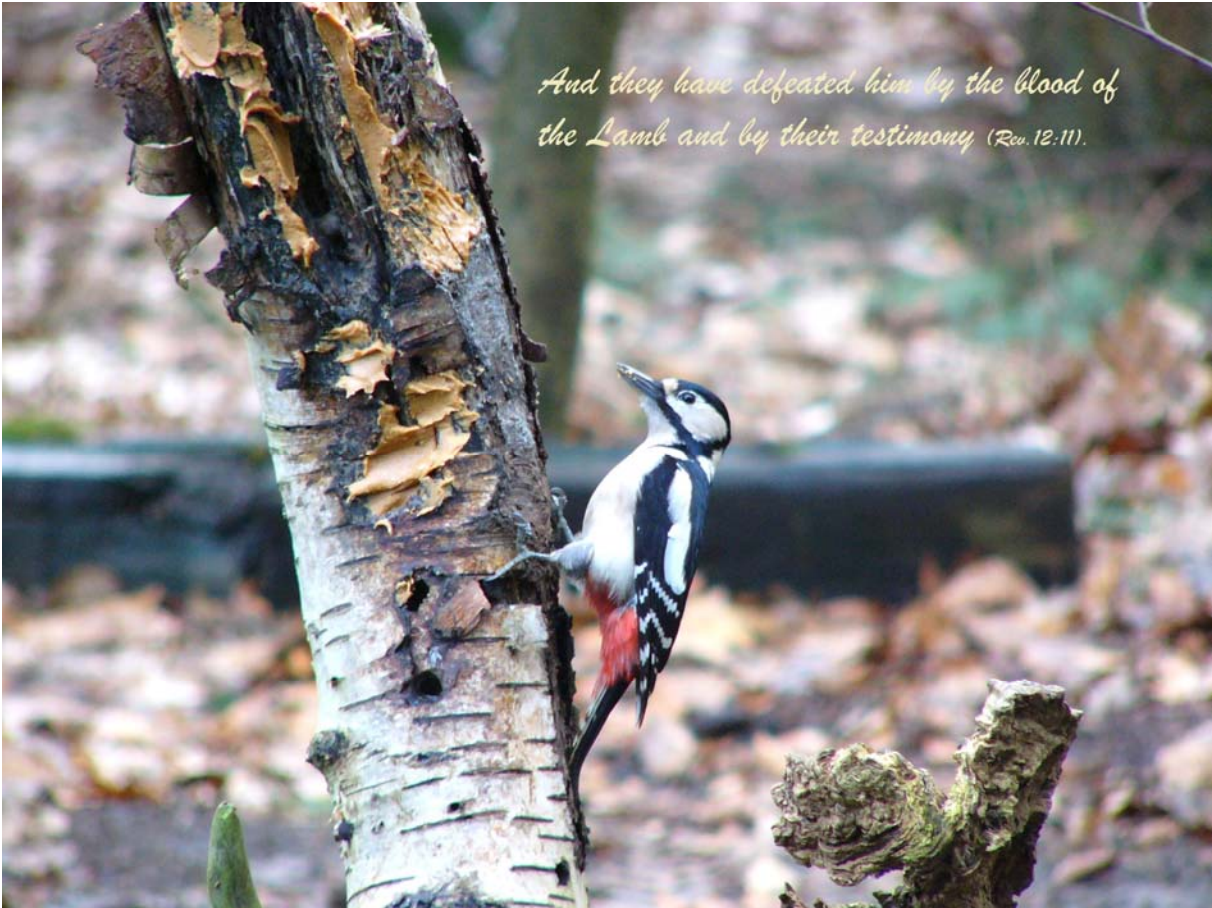

*For He raised us from the dead along with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ
Jesus (Eph 2:6)*

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it (John 1:5).

And they have defeated him by the blood of the Lamb and by their testimony (Rev. 12:11).

The Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world. (1 John 4:14)

You have died with Christ, and He has set you free from the spiritual powers of this world (Col.2:20).

For the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom (2 Cor.3:17).

...that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him all our days (Luke 1:74-75).

Say to those with fearful hearts, Be strong, and do not fear, for your God is coming to destroy your enemies. He is coming to save (deliver) you (Isaiah 35:4).

For the Lord your God has arrived to live among you. He is a mighty saviour. He will rejoice over you with great gladness. With His love, He will calm all your fears. He will exult over you by singing a happy song (Zephaniah 3:17).

For He has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of His dear Son (Col.1:13).

But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal.5:22).

Then I heard a loud voice shouting across the heavens, It has come at last—salvation and power and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers and sisters has been thrown down to earth—the one who accuses them before our God day and night (Rev.12:10).

For He raised us from the dead along with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ Jesus (Ephesians 2:6).

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it (John 1:5).

Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for his own? No one—for God Himself has given us right standing with Himself (Romans 8:33).

We use God's mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments. We destroy every proud obstacle that keeps people from knowing God. We capture their rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ (2 Cor.10:4-5).

In Christ the fullness of God lives in a human body (Col.2:9-10).

Then God made you alive with Christ, for He forgave all our sins. He canceled the record of the charges against us and took it away by nailing it to the cross. In this way, He disarmed the spiritual rulers and authorities. He shamed them publicly by His victory over them on the cross (Col.2:13-15).

And they have defeated him by the blood of the Lamb and by their testimony (Rev.12:11).

The Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world (1 John 4:4).
